

Kiera McCarthy joined the BACH team in October, 2019. She comes to the apprenticeship program manager position with five years of experience working in refugee resettlement in Baltimore. Previously Kiera oversaw both entry level and career advancement programs serving approximately 450 humanitarian immigrants annually. She managed vocational trainings in certified nursing assistants, medical assistants, and forklift operators. Kiera holds a bachelor's degree from Goucher College in Peace and Conflict studies and focused her education on Human Rights